Image Permissions Policy & Agreement

Both new and archival images from the Greenwich Village Society for Historic Preservation (GVSHHP) can be requested for personal, scholarly, or commercial use. An application must be submitted for all requests for an image. The applicant agrees to abide by all terms, conditions, and provisions of this agreement.

Permission for reproduction is limited to the applicant and is non-transferable. Permission is for one-time use only and is non-exclusive. Permission for reproduction is granted only for the expressed purpose described in the application. Reproduced photographs are not to be sold or duplicated for sale. Images may not be altered in any way.

Images provided by GVSHHP may still be under copyright and protected by the intellectual property laws of the United States. You are solely responsible for clearing the copyright with the rights holder.

The Greenwich Village Society for Historic Preservation reserves the right to refuse any request and to impose such conditions as it may deem advisable in the best interest of GVSHHP and its collections.

You agree to hold GVSHHP harmless from any and all claims and expenses arriving from your use of an image.

Images or image files cannot be distributed or resold independent from the specific use for which permission is granted and may not be used in a manner allowing permanent storage or reuse by third parties. No permissions may be sublicensed, transferred, or assigned. You agree not to make, authorize, or permit any use of any image except as specifically set forth in this Agreement and in the application. Digital files must be destroyed or deleted from server no later than 60 days after use has been completed as specified in your application. You must obtain permission from GVSHHP to archive digital files.

Credit for images from the Archives must be given in the following format, unless otherwise notified: Collection of the Greenwich Village Society for Historic Preservation.
