ST. BRIGID'S PARISH SCHOOL AND ACADEMY

313-315 East 10th Street
New York City

This Mission was opened in May, 1856. Sister Mary Cornelia was appointed Sister-Servant. The Sisters in the Parish School, known as St. Brigid's Free School were at first:

Sister Ann Cecilia
Sister Ann
Sister M. Raymond

The following Sisters were sent in August, 1856:

Sister M. Ambrosia
Sister Gabriella

St. Brigid's Academy was opened the same year (1856) by Sister M. Liguori and Sister Ann Veronica. Sister Liguori was replaced in October 1856 by Sister Mary Cecilia.

A change in the neighborhood caused a decline in the Academy and made it impossible to maintain the property without a loss to the Community. The Academy was consequently closed about 1910.

Later, Rev. D.J. McMahon of Epiphany Church proposed that we open a Day Nursery in St. Brigid's Academy. We replied that this would be impractical as the school was still in existence and the Sisters from three schools of the neighboring parishes had their home there. His request was not granted.

In 1920 St. Brigid's Convent property was sold. The Sisters who taught at St. Ann's and St. Brigid's Schools went to live at St. Gabriel's Convent. The Sisters who taught in Immaculate Conception School went to St. Joseph's Home, 209 West 15th Street.

St. Brigid's Parochial School was closed in 1934.

My dear Sister:

Re: St. Brigid's Academy,
313-315 East 10th Street, Manhattan.

Regarding your inquiry as to the sale of the above property I looked up my records and find that the Contract of Sale was signed at the office of Mr. Bayard L. Peck on Thursday, April 22nd, 1920 and Title was taken by the purchaser, Mr. Samuel Horowitz, on June 2nd, 1920. The property was sold for an all cash consideration of Thirty-six Thousand ($36,000.00) Dollars. I hope this is the information you desired.

With fondest love, I am

Sincerely,

GWG S
